In the benchrest the A-Team are top in their division, of the individuals Jim Pollitt is way ahead of his division and should win providing he doesn't drop his last shots

Portslade and West Hove

Final Results just in, Medals for Wayne Leggett, Mike Medcalf, and Brian Fletcher

C&N Winter leagues

The club has entered 2 Air pistol, 3 Benchrest, and 4 prone teams also 31 individuals in the Cumbria at a cost of £232. that's a lot of shooting for a club with only 5 firing points

Bisley

Speaking of success for a small club congratulations to David Greenhalgh who won several prizes at the National Championships at Bisley and gained promotion to B class

While we were at Bisley we purchased a second hand spotting scope and stand for £35.

I have no doubt you will all have noticed the big improvements to the clarity on the television screens this has been done by Alan Schofield acquiring and fitting two new cameras and some extra wiring into the system all at no cost to the club thank you Alan. Thanks also to Paul Redman for his help in replacing and repairing the target holders at the far end of the range.
